DOUBLE SUCCESS FOR DAWSON BOOKS IN DENMARK

We are delighted to announce the appointment of Dawson Books as International Book Supplier to the University of Copenhagen and The Royal Library, Copenhagen. The contract is for 2 years with an option for a further 2 years as an extension.

Michael von Cotta-Schönberg, Deputy Director General of the Royal Library and University Librarian of the University of Copenhagen, commented: "I am looking forward to working with Dawson as a trusted and innovative partner in providing knowledge resources to researchers and students at the University of Copenhagen. Dawson's track record bodes well for an interesting and fruitful venture".

Christian Vendelbo Rasmussen of University of Copenhagen commented "Dawson Books has presented the best tender in regards to high quality, service and technology. Dawson has also provided many years of consistently high service and the library professionals at both the University of Copenhagen and The Royal Library, Copenhagen look forward to continuing this close association and meeting the needs of our libraries in a changing environment."

Diane Kerr, Managing Director commented, "This award is an endorsement of the investments and innovations we have made in workflows and services for our library customers such as shelf ready books and our new web 'dawsonenter'. The whole Dawson team is delighted with this result."
