DAWSON BOOKS

It is with considerable regret that we announce that Diane Kerr has decided to step down as Managing Director of Dawson Books. Having guided the company through the last several years she has decided it is time to move on.

It would be hard to overstate the contribution Diane has made to the business in nearly 30 years here and her colleagues acknowledge and thank her for her professionalism, dedication and enormous energies in building the business to the position of market leadership it now enjoys. We wish her all possible good fortune for her future endeavours where we are sure she will continue to be a great asset to any business.

Diane is happy to receive any direct messages. If you would like to send them to her Dawson address we will ensure that they are passed on accordingly so that she can reply in time.

Elizabeth Horne has been appointed to take up the role of Managing Director on an interim basis whilst a permanent replacement is recruited. Elizabeth has over 30 years' experience in the book industry, involved with academic and professional markets worldwide. Working with Dawson Books' management and staff, we are contacting you now to assure you that our customers will continue to be given our fullest attention and that our first class service is unaffected by this change.
