dawsonera

Europe's leading ebook platform ...

dawsonera continues to set the pace as the most relevant ebook platform available today.

More and more institutions from across the globe are adopting dawsonera as their ebook platform of choice. Dawson has been instrumental in bringing front list materials to ensure that ebooks are available to dawsonera customers at the time the printed book is published. Combined with this is the diversity of our contributing publishers who now number over 250 Publisher imprints contributing more than 110,000 titles.

We at Dawson Books, are developing our service and products for you. Without customer feedback, we can't do this effectively. So, we commissioned Pragma Consulting, a respected research agency, to help us uncover a deeper understanding of the changes in the library world. The insights that we gain will help shape our future services and refine our current products. In engaging the services of Pragma Consulting we are making a considerable investment in Dawson Books and our world-wide customers.

We would like to thank everyone who completed the survey. Sheffield Hallam University and Hadlow College were the two organisations who won the gift vouchers in our Prize Draw. Congratulations!
