Press Release

18 June 2010

DAWSON SUCCESS AT UPPSALA UNIVERSITY

We are delighted to announce the appointment of Dawson Books as International Book Supplier to Uppsala University of Sweden. The contract is for 2 years with an option for a further 1 year extension.

Prof. Dr. Ulf Göranson, Director of Uppsala University Library, commented, "Uppsala University has enjoyed a long and fruitful association with Dawson Books stretching back over many years. Dawson has consistently shown very high standards in book supply and our library professionals are pleased to continue this relationship. Moreover, Dawson understands our future needs and expectations in book supply and works in partnership with us in a changing environment to achieve our aims."

Jude Norris, Sales & Marketing Director commented, "Dawson is delighted with the award from Uppsala University, and we look forward to continuing our partnership to enhance service delivery. Our new acquisition tool, dawsonenter.com, further integrates print and ebook workflows, providing new title alerting and reading list management capabilities".

Dawson has a great deal to offer libraries through enhanced services and the latest collection development tools. The new web resource, dawsonenter, brings revolutionary utility and sophistication to all aspects of book selection and acquisition whilst dawsonera, our ebook platform, continues to flourish with new and relevant content.
