

Let Karnac Feed Your Mind with 200 eBooks

Many librarians will recognise the name Karnac Books as a premier publisher of books covering all aspects of the mind. Dawson is delighted to announce that there are now 100 Karnac ebooks on dawsonera ready for purchase with another 100 in the process of being loaded.

From its genesis in the 1970's, Karnac has grown to become one of the leading independent Mental Health publishers, producing 80 new titles each year on all aspects of Psychotherapeutic Technique.

The range of its publishing programme guarantees a wide appeal and will be welcomed by the medical practitioner and student alike. Topics covered include: Clinical Psychology, Psychoanalysis, Counselling, Bereavement, Hypnotherapy, Eating Disorders, Neurolinguistics, Forensic Psychology, Cognition, Neuroscience, Child Psychiatry, Autism and Addictions. Titles also include the noted Tavistock Clinic Series and the John Bowlby Conference Monographs.

Karnac course books are chosen by many British institutions to support taught courses and qualifications awarded in Educational Psychology, Psychotherapy and Counselling. Contact us if you would like more information on recommended texts for students in training.
