

eBooks from The Netherlands have Universal Appeal

As a centre for English-language publishing The Netherlands might not immediately spring to mind but, in addition to the mighty Elsevier, dawsonera hosts substantial numbers of ebooks from the Amsterdam University Press, Brill, IOS Press and John Benjamins. Now, two additional publishers expand the link with The Netherlands even further:

Editions Rodopi is a long-established academic publisher whose printed books Dawson has supplied to many of our customers over recent years. Subjects covered include art, cultural and media studies, history, literature, philosophy, psychology, social sciences and theology. New titles are commissioned from experts across the globe and Rodopi has editorial offices in New York as well as at its headquarters in Amsterdam. Sixty ebooks are now available for purchase on dawsonera and several hundred more are expected shortly. Examples include:

Thinking Northern	9781435612280
The Abject of Desire	9781435604926
Romantic Women Poets	9781435611863
Processes of Transposition	9781435611849
