

Princeton University Press “Putting Knowledge to Work”

This month we are delighted to add the prestigious Princeton University Press to dawsonera. Iconic, historic and regarded to be of the top universities in the world, this is an exciting addition to our catalogue.

Princeton is one of the three ‘Ivy league’ universities whose press publishes across a wide range of disciplines including American History, American Language and Literature, Anthropology, Science and Engineering, Archaeology and Ancient History, Art and Architecture, Literature, Chemistry, Earth Sciences, Economics, Education, European History, Film Studies, Gender Studies, Law, Philosophy, Physics, Psychology, Religion, Sociology and World History. It offers a diverse and cutting-edge ebook catalogue, with something for everyone.

Founded in 1905, its motto is “Putting Knowledge to Work” as it continues to serve the universities and the world of scholarship through its highly acclaimed printing and publishing programme.

The Press has published nearly 3,000 titles since its first book, Lectures in Moral Philosophy, appeared in 1912. These have included seminal works and numerous awards including six Pulitzer Prizes to date. Currently it publishes approximately 100 new books each year.

Popular titles that we now offer to our ebook customers include:

A very brief history of eternity	9781400831876
Dostoevsky's democracy	9781400828920
Guesstimation: Solving the world's problems on the back of a cocktail napkin	9781400824441
How do you know? The economics of ordinary knowledge	9781400830664
Good & Plenty: The creative successes of American arts funding	9781400827008

This is just a small example of the 500 ebooks we now have available for purchase on dawsonera, with new titles being added every week, keeping you completely up-to-date with their current publishing program.

Princeton will be in good company alongside fellow University Presses already in our collection:

The University of Chicago Press, which is the largest university press in the United States, publishes in a wide variety of titles in numerous academic fields.

The University of California Press, one of the most distinguished university presses in the United States for the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, publishes over 4,000 titles, many of which are now available as ebooks. It is home to an international cast of authors, many of whom are prize winning, and a wonderful addition to our catalogue.

The American University in Cairo Press is the Middle East's leading English-language publishing house. It has a unique publishing programme of scholarly, literary, and general interest publications on Egypt and the Middle East. dawsonera currently offers a small but unique selection of AUC Press ebooks.

Temple University is a comprehensive public research university in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, founded in 1884. It is one of the largest providers of professional education (law, medicine, pharmacy, dentistry) and has recently celebrated 40 years of publishing excellence. Ranked the ninth-leading university press it is an honour to have them as part of our scholarly family.

For more information about dawsonera, or to request a specific publisher list, please contact: enquiries@dawsonera.com or telephone +44 (0)1933 417500 to speak to a member of the team.

Take advantage of our title matching facility. Either supply a wish list of titles, or ask Dawson to match against your printed acquisition history.

Full Publisher List...

Please continue to send wish lists and publisher suggestions to econtent@dawsonera.com