

Manchester University Press Boosts dawsonera Content

The addition of ebooks from Manchester University Press puts the last piece in place for comprehensive coverage of Britain's University Presses. Manchester joins Oxford, Cambridge, Edinburgh, Liverpool, Nottingham and Hertfordshire University Presses as a welcome addition to the dawsonera catalogue.

Established over 100 years ago with a comprehensive publishing programme, producing 140 new books each year, Manchester ranks third in size and output amongst British University Presses with a solid academic programme, covering most disciplines across the Arts and Humanities. Specific areas of commissioning include Politics, Economics, History, Sociology, Media and Cultural Studies.

The first 100 ebooks are now available for purchase with many more to come. Examples include:

Rethinking European Union Foreign Policy eISBN 9781847790965
Francis Bacon's New Atlantis eISBN 9781847790347
