

New content from OECD available to purchase on dawsonera

Our continued partnership with publishers ensures that the very latest content is available to purchase on dawsonera from academic publishers worldwide.

The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) based in Paris, is an international organisation helping governments tackle the economic, social and governance challenges of a global economy, and is one of the world's largest publishers in the fields of economics and public policy. Publishing over 300 books each year, OECD covers a variety of subject areas, including general economy, statistics, agriculture, science and environmental issues.

Dawson receives new content from OECD on a monthly basis and this is reflected in the growth of ebooks available to purchase on the platform, which now extends to more than 1,000 titles published under the following imprints:

Nuclear Energy Agency
OECD Development Centre
Programme on Educational Building
Club du Sahel
European Conference of Ministers of Transport
International Energy Agency
International Transport Forum
Centre for Educational Research and Innovation
OECD Publishing
